Dear Dick,

Just a short note.

I was very glad and reassured to get your latest letters to Paul today. I'm sorry if I made any wrong accusations or implications in my letter to Harold today which speaks of my fear that you had inadvertantly given confidential material to Paul.

I think you acted wise in refusing Paul the info re the rear head shot, and I sincerely thank you for acting as you did.

I am still not clear on the matter of the panel letters, and I would appreciate it if you could fill me in on just what Paul has seen or knows of this.

Best,
